Thursday, March 9, 2017 | 5:15 pm | Milstein Auditorium | Department of Art Visiting Artist: Sonya Clark. Co-sponsored by American Studies and Africana studies. As an African-American artist, Sonya Clark uses craft as a means to honor her lineage and expand notions of both Americanness and art. She uses materials as wide ranging as textiles, hair, beads, combs, and sound to address issues of nationhood, identity, and racial constructs. In some of her work, Sonya Clark explores the cultural meaning of hair and all of its heavy and joyous symbolism. The artist describes hair as power, the essence of identity and a marker of chronology, wisdom and adornment. Visit her website: http://sonyaclark.com/gallery/

Friday, March 10, 2017 | 5:00 – 7:00 PM | Willard Straight Hall Memorial Room | Dining with Diverse Minds event centered around Invisible Disabilities. Hosted by CMM, ALANA and CUDAP. Thursday, March 16, 2017 | 5:15 pm | Milstein Auditorium | Department of Art Visiting Artist: Odili Donald Odita. Co-sponsored by the Graduate School. Odita was born in 1966 in Enugu, Nigeria, and lives and works in Philadelphia. His abstract paintings explore ways to trigger memory and address the human condition through color, pattern and design. His work explores color both in the figurative historical context and in the sociopolitical sense. Odita says, “Color in itself has the possibility of mirroring the complexity of the world as much as it has the potential for being distinct.” See examples of his work at: http://www.jackshainman.com/artists/odili-donald-odita/

Summer Internships with the Analyst Institute | The Analyst Institute helps Democratic and progressive groups figure out what really works in political and social justice campaigns. We share recommendations and provide education and training for the progressive community. We keep a low-profile, but we work with all the big name groups in the progressive ecosystem—labor unions, environmental groups, racial justice organizers, LGBTQIA rights advocates, you name it—from local and state-based groups all the way up to Presidential campaigns. We’re looking to train paid interns, and to launch their careers. We offer two internship tracks: Synthesis and Outreach, and Statistics and Programming. To learn more and apply, click here.

Rolling Deadline - Energy Corps Summer Intern | The Energy Corps intern (https://energycorps.wordpress.com/) positions at Cornell Cooperative Extension of Tompkins County offer a variety of opportunities to become engaged with solar energy and energy efficiency. The internship explores fields such as solar education, outreach, and adoption; small commercial energy efficiency education and outreach; DIY energy efficiency actions and upgrades. This is a chance to get visible projects into your portfolios and have experience in a not-for-profit organization. Cornell Cooperative Extension has 1.3 million people in its programs in NYS every year, and being part of the multi-state Extension system means you will be interning in a nationally recognized organization. For more information please contact Gibrian Hagood at gah225@cornell.edu.
